Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 22, 2017, the undersigned spoke by telephone with Charles Mathias, Associate Bureau Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. We discussed the June 20, 2017 filing by the aviation trade associations.¹ I explained that all the issues raised in the filing were discussed in full and open deliberations as part of the RTCA process that was initiated by the FAA to review Ligado's proposal to protect aviation safety, that those concerns (including those referenced in the appendix attached to the June 20 ex parte letter) were presented to the FAA, and our understanding is that the issues raised in both the June 20 letter and its attachments informed the FAA's deliberations on the issues as Ligado discussed in detail in Appendix B of our June 5, 2017 filing in the above-captioned dockets.²
